

International Women's Rights Project - IWRP

The Foundation for Human Rights, the International Women's Rights Project and the High Commission of Canada invite you to the screening of a Canadian documentary film entitled "Constitute!"

Constitute! educates and informs about how important citizen engagement is for democracy in Canada and beyond. The courageous democratic activism by women from Afghanistan, Rwanda and South Africa is also portrayed, highlighting the global nature of women's equality struggles.

Date : 17 November 2010

Venue : Foundation for Human Rights
8th Floor 209 Smit Street Building
209 Smit Street, Braamfontein
Johannesburg

Time for Screening : 15h00

Discussion : 15h50 – 16h20

Susan Bazilli, Executive Producer of the film and Director of the IWRP will be in attendance

Refreshments will be served

RSVP: Sally at 076 624 7255 (smusandirire@fhr.org.za) or Ria Nonyana at 082 927 5179 (rnonyana@fhr.org.za) no later than 14 November 2010

Government of Canada
High Commission of Canada

Gouvernement du Canada
Haut-commissariat du Canada