

UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO
FACULTY OF LAW

International WOMEN'S Rights Project

CONSTITUTE! THE FILM

Celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Ad Hoc Women's Constitutional Conference

Produced by the International Women's Rights Project and Rooney Productions, Constitute!, focuses on the largest mobilization of women in Canadian history, who ensured that the Charter of Rights and Freedoms included equality Sections 15 and 28. With interviews by human rights activist and journalist Sally Armstrong, the film features such notable Canadian women as Michele Landsberg, Marilou McPhedran, Linda Palmer Nye, Sharon McIvor, Flora MacDonald, Pauline Jewett, and others. The film also includes

Wednesday, February 16, 2011

Faculty of Law, University of Toronto

Bennett Lecture Hall, Flavelle House, 78 Queen's Park

6:30 to 8:30 pm

The film screening will be followed by a discussion with the Executive Producer, Susan Bazilli. A reception will be hosted by the Faculty of Law.

Suggested donation $15 (free for students)

Hosted by the International Women's Rights Project in conjunction with Women & the Law and the Feminist Law Students' Association at U of T